C&O have been attending and supporting agricultural shows throughout our region. In a vast improvement on last years mud soaked events we have taken tractors and machinery to the New Forest Show, Ellingham & Ringwood Agricultural Show and most recently the Gillingham & Shaftesbury Show.

A big thank you to all customers old and new who have visited us on stands over the summer and thanks to our machinery reps who have supported us at these events.

Congratulations go to the winners of the two livestock classes sponsored by C&O; Simmental – won with a heifer by Mr & Mrs A White from Worth Matravers and Simmernal Heifer – won by Archie Hill, son of Mr & Mrs Nick Hill, Nyland Cheddar.

For the first time there was a stores tent at the show selling a range of New Holland toy tractors and New Holland clothing, including the show special kids tractor t-shirts. In support of local charity the Ducks and Drakes cancer trust 10% of proceeds from the sale of t-shirts and hats on the stand will be donated to the charity.

CATTLEMARKET CARMEN

A Honda ATV on loan from C&O Wilton has been used in a contemporary staging of the classic opera Carmen. Local operatic company Winterbourne Opera utilised the natural theatre of the cattling at Salisbury Livestock Market for performances. The production was the largest ever staged by the group and in addition to the regular chorus, 12 young professional singers and a youth orchestra joined the group.

By all accounts it has been a fantastic harvest across Dorset, Wiltshire, Sussex, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight this season, we've got some great shots of C&O supplied CX5090, CR9090 and CR8080 combine harvesters in action.
